Incidents

Fatal Crash Investigation – On August 26 at 1:10AM, crash investigators responded to the area of Catharpin Road and Fallen Oaks Place in Gainesville (20155) to investigate a crash. The investigation revealed the drivers of a 2015 Toyota Corolla, and a 2016 Hyundai Elantra were traveling southbound on Catharpin Rd. at a high rate of speed when driver of the Corolla passed the Elantra, crossing over the double yellow line. The driver of the Elantra then attempted to overtake the Corolla in a "No Passing" zone when the Elantra made contact with the rear of the Corolla as it began to pass. The Corolla then rotated and struck a 2006 Scion that was traveling the opposite direction. The Elantra left the roadway and traveled down an embankment before striking a tree. The driver of the Elantra later died at an area hospital as a result of his injuries. A passenger in the Elantra sustained non-life threatening injuries. The drivers of the Corolla and the Scion were not injured. Speed is a factor in the collision. The investigation continues.

Identified:

The operator of the 2016 Hyundai Elantra was identified as Qais JAILANI, 19, of Haymarket

The passenger of the 2016 Hyundai Elantra was identified as a 19-year-old man of Gainesville
